BOOTS & SHOES.

A LARGE INVOICE OF

FRESH GOODS

Just Received.

I BEG to inform my numerous patrons and the public generally, that I have just returned from the eastern markets with a large and well selected stock of which, for variety of styles and excellence of workmanship

BOOTS & SHOES,

CANNOT BE BEAT.

Look at the list of a few articles named below: Men's Split, Buff, Cf. Enmld, Patna, Slaughter and French Kip at prices ranging from 90 cts to $2.00.

BROGANS,

Mens' Pat. Buff, Lasting, Glove, Cf and Goat

Ladies' Kid, Lasting, Carpet and Toilet

SLIPPERS,

at prices ranging from 40 cents to $1,50.

Boys', Misses' and Childrens' Wear, a great variety, and at correspondingly low rates.

I am enabled, by buying strictly for cash and of heavy manufacturers, to give a better Article for

Less Money

than any other concern dare do. I am not guessing but telling a plain simple truth. I have now in store a good stock of

Custom Made Work, and am prepared, as usual, to

MANUFACTURE TO ORDER

with despatch and reasonable rates.

For the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, I am sincerely grateful and hope for a continuance of the same. I would solicit a call from all about purchasing, feeling well assured that I can save them a Milwaukee, Chicago or Rochester profit. O. MINER.

DAILY GAZETTE.

For the Janesville Daily Gazette.

The Six Hundred Thousand to Father Abram.

We are coming, Father Abram, six hundred thousand strong,
We are coming at thy bidding, to swell fair Freedom's throng;
Swift of foot we move right onward, our brothers' hearts to cheer,
To prove that on the battle-field we're strangers all to fear!

We are coming, Father Abram, to beat the rebel horde,
And from the old ship UNION sweep treason overboard.

We are coming from the masses—the people's voice we're heard,
And by its earnest utterance each manly heart is stirred;
Its language for thine ear is this—its noble, high demand,
"Speak to the captive liberty!—freedom throughout the land!"
Now in the people's name we come, their fiat we proclaim;
May Father Abram heed the voice, and win a deathless fame!

Slavery has been a cruel power, its curse we keenly feel,
It rained its fire on Sumter's walls, and placed its iron heel
Upon the flag our fathers bore, the flag we love so well!
And of its murderous intent let fields of carnage tell!
Speak! let us hear the thrilling words,—"Go, bondmen, thou art free!"
Thus shall our broad domain become the land of liberty.

We are coming, coming, coming—our motto Truth and Right,
And the good time, too, is coming, when freedom's holy light
Shall shine o'er all the Southern land,—tell us that time is now,
And garlands of a nation's love shall grace thy noble brow.
We are coming, Father Abram, six hundred thousand more,—
Behind we leave hear hearts and homes,—but glory lies before!

Janesville, Aug. 13th, 1862. G. W. L.

GEN. CURTIS AND CONFISCATION.—A correspondent of the Madison Journal says:

"The negroes flocked into our camp at Helena, many of whom have been employed as teamsters and cooks. Every afternoon, for a week past, a crowd of colored persons might have been seen around Gen. Curtis' headquarters, waiting for their free papers. They must have been used in the rebel service to entitle them to their freedom. Many of them had worked on the blockade which prevented our reaching the boats at Clarendon. The presence of the contrabands has caused some discussion among the soldiers as to what shall be done with them. I happened into the provost marshal's office the other day, and found Charley Miller, a Madison boy, busily engaged in writing passes. One of the contrabands from Gen. Pillow's plantation presented his papers, and asked for a pass to St. Louis. His "free papers" were brief, and I took a copy:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE SOUTHWEST,
HELENA, Ark., July 2, 1862.
[Special Order No. 311.]

Jack Pillow and family, colored persons, and formerly slaves, having, by direction of their owner, been engaged in the rebel service, are hereby confiscated; and being contraband of war, and not being needed in the public service, are permitted to pass the pickets of this command northward, and are forever emancipated from a master who permitted them to assist in an attempt to break up the government and laws of our country.

By command of Maj. Gen. CURTIS.
I. C. BUNDY, Lt. and A. D. C.

The citizens must feel like the old lady at Batesville, who spoke in strong terms about Curtis freeing slaves there. She said, "It would not be so bad if he would sell them, but when he freed them it did nobody any good."

New Arrangement!

AN improvement is the order of the day, I have made arrangements with WM. ADDY to take charge of my

Mr. Addy's long experience and acklowledged taste as a

DR. J BOVEE DODS'

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

ALL KINDS OF PRINTING NEATLY EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE

DAILY GAZETTE.

For the Janesville Daily Gazette.
The Six Hundred Thousand to Father Abram.

We are coming, Father Abram, six hundred thousand strong,
We are coming at thy bidding, to swell fair Freedom's throng;
Swift of foot we move right onward, our brothers' hearts to cheer,
To prove that on the battle-field we're strangers all to fear!
We are coming, Father Abram, to beat the rebel horde,
And from the old ship UNION sweep treason overboard.

We are coming from the masses—the people's voice we've heard,
And by its earnest utterance each manly heart is stirred;
Its language for thine ear is this—its noble, high demand,
"Speak to the captive liberty!—freedom throughout the land!"
Now in the people's name we come, their fiat we proclaim;
May Father Abram heed the voice, and win a deathless fame!

Slavery has been a cruel power, its curse we keenly feel,
It rained its fire on Sumter's walls, and placed its iron heel
Upon the flag our fathers bore, the flag we love so well!
And of its murderous intent let fields of carnage tell!
Speak! let us hear the thrilling words,—"Go, bondmen, thou art free!"
Thus shall our broad domain become the land of liberty.

We are coming, coming, coming—our motto Truth and Right,
And the good time, too, is coming, when freedom's holy light
Shall shine o'er all the Southern land,—tell us that time is now,
And garlands of a nation's love shall grace thy noble brow.
We are coming, Father Abram, six hundred thousand more,—
Behind we leave hear hearts and homes,—but glory lies before!

Janesville, Aug. 13th, 1862. G. W. L.

GEN. CURTIS AND CONFISCATION.—A correspondent of the Madison Journal says:

"The negroes flocked into our camp at Helena, many of whom have been employed as teamsters and cooks. Every afternoon, for a week past, a crowd of colored persons might have been seen around Gen. Curtis' headquarters, waiting for their free papers. They must have been used in the rebel service to entitle them to their freedom. Many of them had worked on the blockade which prevented our reaching the boats at Clarendon. The presence of the contrabands has caused some discussion among the soldiers as to what shall be done with them. I happened into the provost marshal's office the other day, and found Charley Miller, a Madison boy, busily engaged in writing passes. One of the contrabands from Gen. Pillow's plantation presented his papers, and asked for a pass to St. Louis. His "free papers" were brief, and I took a copy:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE SOUTHWEST, HELENA, Ark., July 2, 1862.
[Special Order No. 311.]

Jack Pillow and family, colored persons, and formerly slaves, having, by direction of their owner, been engaged in the rebel service, are hereby confiscated; and being contraband of war, and not being needed in the public service, are permitted to pass the pickets of this command northward, and are forever emancipated from a master who permitted them to assist in an attempt to break up the government and laws of our country.

By command of Maj. Gen. CURTIS.
J. C. BUNDY, Lt. and A. D. C.

The citizens must feel like the old lady at Batesville, who spoke in strong terms about Curtis freeing slaves there. She said, "It would not be so bad if he would sell them, but when he freed them it did nobody any good."

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal electors of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of national trial and peril, will sustain the state and federal administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserved, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected throughout every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the republicans in electing delegates to this convention.

Each Assembly and Senatorial district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention.

The Arkansas Blown Up.

A dispatch from John C. Breckinridge to Mobile, dated August 6th, says that the federal gunboats attacked the Arkansas that morning, near Baton Rouge, and after a gallant resistance she was blown up by her crew.

Baton Rouge.

Breckinridge telegraphs, ten miles from Baton Rouge, that the battle there "was without any decisive results." He says that Gen. Williams and several other prominent federal officers were killed. The result looks as if Breckinridge was defeated and driven out of Baton Rouge.

Arrest of an Ohio Traitor.

Dr. Edson B. Olds, a prominent Ohio traitor, second only to Vallandigham, has been arrested for disloyalty, using treasonable language, and interfering with enlistments. The warrant was signed by C. P. Wolcott, Assistant Secretary of War. Olds made some resistance, but was overpowered. Vallandigham is more cautious in his language and acts, but not less atrocious in his sentiments. He should be the next man arrested. Olds has been sent to Fort Lafayette.

The Apportionment by Towns.

The following order has been issued:

Adjutant General's Office, Madison, Aug. 14, 1862.

To avoid misunderstanding, the public are hereby informed that the quota of men will be assigned to each town, upon the same principle that the quota has been assigned to counties; and when each town furnishes its quota, it will be exempt from draft. The apportionment to towns will be published so soon as completed, which will probably be within a week.

By order of the Commander in Chief.

Adjutant General of Wisconsin.

Enlistments in the Old Regiments to be Credited in our Quota.

The following dispatch was received last evening from the Adjutant General of this state:

Madison, August 14.

To Gazette Office:—Recruits for the old regiments will be credited on your quota.
Aug. Gaylord,
Adjutant General.

Disaster in East Tennessee

The defeat and surrender of the federal army near Cumberland Gap is confirmed. Three thousand of our troops fought 15000 of the enemy four hours, before they were surrounded and overpowered.

Gen. Buell is also thought to be in danger.

Illinois Constitution.—The returns from the Illinois soldiers who have voted on the new constitution have been received. The majority against the constitution is 8,464, making the aggregate in the state against the constitution, 25,526.

Alleged Rebel Victory in East Tennessee.—The rebels publish a dispatch from Knoxville, which states that they gained a victory over the federal forces near Tazewell, on the 6th, and that "the enemy was in full retreat." Tazewell is about twenty miles from Cumberland Gap; our forces there were in command of General Morgan.

The Late Battle.—Gen. Pope in his report of the late battle, estimates our loss at 1500 killed, wounded and missing; 290 were taken prisoners; a large proportion were killed. He says the enemy's loss was greater than ours. He pays a high compliment to Gen. Banks.

From New Orleans.—Gen. Butler suppressed the Picayune for condemning Gen. Pope's order for levying contributions on the country in which his army may operate. After an apology and a promise not to offend again, the order in relation to the Picayune was rescinded.

Gen. Phelps has resigned his command because Gen. Butler refused to furnish him with arms and clothing for five companies of negroes whom he had organized. Gen. Butler submits the whole question to the department, without giving any opinion.

A Lawyer in a Fix.

Did I ever tell you about the Newark lawyer's first case in Minnesota? No! Well, then, here it goes, for its worth circulating. You are no doubt well aware that many sprigs of aristocracy in eastern cities labor under the impression that in order to extinguish all other lights they have only to emigrate to some western town and dazzle the natives. Many a man has thus started out in search of wool, and been himself badly shorn. And in no town in the world does this class stand a poorer chance than in St. Paul, Minnesota.

So much for introduction, and a key to the fact why the mass is made up of the ablest lawyers, judges, clergy, merchants, capitalists, and speculators, who overtaxed their mental energies in eastern cities. And now to the story:

It was a pleasant morning in the month of August—(no matter what year)—while the large and splendid "Key City," (Capt. Jones Worden and Clerk L. Eldred,) was proudly ploughing her way up the Mississippi from La Crosse, that a brilliantly dressed gentleman of about twenty-five years of age was to be seen leisurely reclining on a railing in front of the office, puffing the ten-cent regalia just taken from his pocket, and evidently wondering if the half civilized people of St. Paul ever smoked anything more expensive than pipes.

Turning to a plainly dressed gentleman at his side, he exclaimed:

"Ah, you—ah, acquainted in St. Paul?"

"Oh, yes; I know most of the leading citizens," was the reply.

"Do you, indeed?" exclaimed the flashy gentleman. "Well, then, I am in luck; pretty lively place?"

"Quite so, sir; every man has something to do, and all are making a good living."

"Do you live—ah, in St. Paul?"

"I do."

"Have you any lawyers there?"

"Quite too many, sir. That is my profession."

The dandy looked at the man at first with incredulity, and then, with a patronizing air, said:

"I have reference, my good fellow, to first-class attorneys, men of education, who graduated at college!"

A light seemed to break in upon the man's mind as he replied:

"Ah! I see what you mean! No, we have no lawyers of education! Are you a lawyer, sir?"

Inflating himself with importance and great condescension, he replied:

"A graduate, sir, of the best college in New Jersey; and, if sufficient encouragement is held out by the members of the bar in St. Paul, I will stop among them, and give them the benefit of my knowledge."

At the same time the brilliant young sprig produced and handed over a very miniature card, which read:

G—— E——L,
Newark, N. J.

The man seemed delighted. He claimed the privilege at once of extending to the stranger the hospitalities of the bar of St. Paul; and declared that within two hours after the arrival of the boat a public reception should be given him.

As the sun was sinking in the west the Key City touched at the levee at St. Paul, and the distinguished stranger was at once conducted to a leading hotel to await the arrival of the city bar in a body.

In about two hours they arrived, and were presented in due form by the man who came up on the boat with the brilliant scholar, and who had introduced himself as Mr. Spotless. Then came Judge Kirby, Judge Allfish, Advocate Bloodeye, lawyers Keen, Knifepoint, Badax, Harvey, and some two dozen others—all anxious to show their respect to the lawyer who had been "edicated" and was "a gwine for to show 'm how they dew things in Jersey."

During the excitement of shaking hands and taking drinks for the twentieth time, from the row of bottles placed upon the table, a long gaunt six and a half footer came in with boots off, and without hat, coat, or vest, and in a stentorian voice exclaimed:

"Evenin' court is now open, and I'll shoot every man who don't attend in three minutes!"

There was at once a scattering from the room. Some escaped by one door and some by another; but Judge Kirby grasped the Jersey lawyer by the hand and whispered:

"Follow me and you will be safe!"

Escaping by a back door, and threading innumerable dark lanes and cowyards, the Judge and his young friend at length reached the extensive livery stable at Allbones—the maddest wag in the state.

Here they found a row of twelve barrels for the jury to sit upon, inverted water pails for the lawyers, and a bundle for the Judge.

The prisoner at the bar—who was being tried for the murder of his mother with a butcher knife—was seated on a wheelbarrow, smoking an Indian pipe, and swearing that he could whip any three men on the jury.

"Gentlemen!" gasped the educated man "can it be possible that you conduct courts in this manner in St. Paul?"

"It's only lately, that we have had so nice a room as this," replied a half dozen lawyers. "We used to meet in Bloodeye's woodshed; but this is extra."

The presiding judge now called the court to order, and asked the prisoner if he had any counsel.

"Not a one," was the loud reply; but if that ere chap with nice clothes will take a hold of the job, I'll give him two cows and a hundred acres of perary.

Young Jersey was undecided and wavering, but at length stuttered out that he wished to be excused; whereupon the prisoner sprang to the length of his chain, upset the wheelbarrow, and swore if the man didn't take hold of the case and clear him, that he would follow him from house to house, and drink the last drop of his heart's blood. This decided the matter at once; and the proud sprig of aristocracy felt that his own life, as well as that of his client, depended upon the amount and quality of forensic ability that he could bring to bear upon the jury. On his rising to address the court, the presiding judge indignantly informed him that no college baby, with a coat on, would be permitted to speechify in that temple.

George removed his coat, and was peremptorily ordered to remove his vest, necktie, suspenders, boots and stockings. The orders were all obeyed at the pistol's muzzle, held by the crier of the court—a convalescent invalid six feet two inches in his stockings, and weighing about two hundred and six pounds.

At this stage of the proceedings, two of the jury—who had been playing cards for a gallon of whisky—got into a quarrel, and one drove his bowie knife, apparently up to the hilt, into the other's body. The corpse was conveyed from the room as unconcernedly as if it had been the body of a defunct hog, and the crier screamed at the top of his voice, "Go on with the court!"

George had been a member of the Sons of Malta, or at least he had made his way into the lodge at Trenton a few winters ago, when they were wont to put the candidates over the "rugged path" with bells on.—George, we say, had been there, but now he was frightened, and made up his mind to save his precious life by flight.

With a bound that would have been creditable to the Ravels in their palmiest days, he leaped over a fanning mill, eluded the grasp of his client, who had broken from the wheelbarrow, and by the aid of the almost impenetrable darkness, succeeded in hiding himself in a lumber yard till near morning, when, stealing himself down to the levee in his almost nude state, he ran on board of a small steamer and begged the clerk, in the name of pity and humanity, to give him a passage down the river to some town five hundred miles from St. Paul. He would give no explanation of his undressed condition, but only begged to be secreted until the boat was at least a hundred miles down the river.

On coming out of his state room the next morning, when the boat was near La Crosse, he was informed by the smiling clerk that there was a bundle of clothing and a trunk in the office for him, placed on the boat at St. Paul, with his address, by Lawyer Spotless, a man of fine character, but no education.

"I thank him for my baggage," gasped the student, turning pale at the recollection of the midnight scene in the barn; "but these Minnesota lawyers are worse than savages. They'll gamble, smoke, drink rum, and murder in the court room, and cut the throat of an educated man with as little compunction of conscience as they'd stab a toad. I've heard it said that St. Paul is a beautiful place. It may be in the day time, but it is an awful place in the night. And if it is a healthy place for invalids, it is an unhealthy one for lawyers. I'm an educated lawyer myself. I've had my first case in Minnesota, and it's my last."

On arriving at La Crosse, he went to "Brick Pomeroy," of the Democrat, and tried to get him to publish the story of his St. Paul experience; but "Brick" indignantly replied:

"Can't do it, my boy! 'Fraid 'taint true! It's too funny for reality, and the Democrat never deals in fiction."

Being determined to relate his experience, however, he then hired a hall and advertised a 'lecture on emigration;' and after he had received at the door nearly enough to cover the expenses, the Deputy Mayor stopped up and exclaimed:

"Have you got a license, sir, for this 'ere show!"

"This is not a show, and I have no license."

"Well, I want ten dollars, and I don't care a red whether you call it a show or an exhibition."

"But, my dear friend—"

"Don't but me, sir! I know what the law is—I hold office—and you must pay up or mizzle!"

And so he mizzled; and when on the point of returning home to old Essex, by overland easy stages, on foot, was met by his former friend of the boat, who explained to him that the court scene was all a joke, and prevailed on him to return and locate. He dropped his airs at once, and soon became a favorite.

He now holds an important office at St. Paul.—Cor. N. Y. Clipper.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

Camp Clear Creek, Mis., August 8th, 1862.

We are still encamped on the same ground as when I wrote to you last. Two regiments from our brigade have left us, one the 47th Illinois, is stationed at Kenzie, and the 26th Illinois at Danville.—Three divisions of the army are encamped here, one is at Jacinto. The army of the Tennessee and the army of the Ohio are somewhat scattered, guarding railroads, &c., from Tuscumbia to Memphis. We have a camp of instruction here, and drill two hours every morning and evening. The camps are kept very clean, and we have good water. The grounds are policed every morning by the Pioneers, and the regiment is in fine condition. We have been in this camp now about seven weeks and not a man has died here. The regiment has lost some seven or eight men since the evacuation of Corinth. They died in the general hospital. Some of the Ohio regiments encamped near us have lost forty men in the same time. We have laid out and fenced a regimental burial ground, but as yet it is uninhabited. Not one of my company at present is on the sick list. I have three men at Keokuk hospital sick.—They were sent there about the 15th of June. Their names are John Crymble, Wm. Kelly and W. H. Soper. I wonder that the men keep so healthy in this climate. The weather has been intensely hot for the past week, but is somewhat cooler to-day.

The guard comes very heavy on the men here. We furnish grand guard twice a week, besides brigade and regimental guard every day, and division guard once a week; but the men feel better satisfied since the late order, requiring commanders not to furnish guards for the protection of rebel corn fields, and pig pens. The guards have all been taken off from the rebel houses and wells, and nothing but camps and government property is now guarded. No citizens are allowed in the lines from Tuscumbia to Memphis. The rebels around here think it very naughty in our generals not letting them into our camps to look around and take sketches. We have caught one or two lately here with the papers in their boots, and if justice is shown them they will be hanged by their neck until they are dead.

Our troops at Ripley and Jacinto have seized a large amount of cotton and turned it over to the government. Long trains of army wagons pass here daily loaded with it; on every wagon we see from one to five contrabands coming in to seek protection and aid in putting down the rebellion. In one wagon I noticed a smart, intelligent boy about twelve years old. He was piled in the cotton, and stuck out his black head as he passed us and said, "I'se a confiscated nigger." I have now a smart boy with me, and apparently the happiest negro in the army. He has learned his letters since he has been with me, although I have only had him about two months. He says Lieut. King must buy him a spelling-book when he comes back, and wishes me to say to him, in the language of the soldier, that "he must not go back on him," but thinks the Lieut. might, in all the letters he has written to the men in the company, say something "about the poor black boy."

First Corporal W. J. E. McNair, of my company, is detailed for recruiting service, and is ordered to Janesville. He will leave here in a day or two for Wisconsin, and no doubt will give you some news from this quarter.

Our regiment now musters 650 men for duty, and is the largest regiment now in this army. The men are getting impatient and are longing for cool weather again, so as to commence active operations. The soldiers do not like to be in one place long at a time.

You may believe about half what you hear about the marauding bands about here. The stories get terribly exaggerated through the camps, and by the time they get to Cairo they are about 100 per cent worse than when they happened, if they ever did happen at all.

I have now occupied more time than I intended, and must close. My best wishes to all—hoping we may all get through safe, and return at the end of the war to our friends and families to enjoy the blessings of peace with our friends and neighbors, who have but little conception of the condition of thousands of women and children in the southern states.

Yours, &c., W. B. Britton,
Capt. Co. G, 8th Wis. Vols.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Harrisburg, Aug. 14.

From present indications, Pennsylvania will have fifteen regiments in the field during the week, and others forming rapidly. By order of the Secretary of war, Governor Curtin orders that, after the 15th, no bounty be paid to volunteers in new regiments, but only to volunteers to regiments now in the field and to fill up new regiments now organizing. On August 22d, all incomplete regiments will be consolidated. Volunteers to fill up old regiments will be received and paid bounty, &c., till September 1st. Monday, September 1st, the draft will commence for the 300,000, and continue till completed. No officer now in the field, in regular or volunteers, will, under any circumstances, be detailed to accept a new command.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

Acquia Creek, Va., Aug. 14.

A collision occurred on the Potomac last night, off Ragged Point, between the steamers Peabody and West Point, involving the loss of 73 lives. The West Point was bound to this place from Newport News, with convalescent soldiers of Gen. Burnside's army. She sunk in ten minutes. The Peabody brought the rescued soldiers and passengers to this point. There were 254 soldiers, four officers, thirty ladies, and one child on the West Point. At Fort Monroe she took 17 men aboard, making 279 in all. The accident occurred Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The West Point began sinking fast. The Peabody, which was partially disabled, could only render assistance with boats. There were several vessels in the river, which rendered all the assistance possible, and by their combined efforts 203 persons were rescued. All the crew except a foreigner were saved. The boat was beached as soon as possible, and sunk, in about four fathoms. A portion of the missing may have been saved, as several small boats and schooners were seen to pick up men. The two captains have been put in charge of the provost marshal here, and the affair is being investigated.

New York, August 15th.

The following dispatch appears in the Charleston Courier of August 1st:

Richmond, July 29th.

The opinion gains ground here that Gen. M'Clellan is gradually evacuating his position at Berkley, and is reinforcing Gen. Pope with the bulk of his army. The number of yankee transports in the James river is immense, and great activity is observable among them.

A Washington dispatch says: Secretary Seward stated, last evening, that the current stories published in some of the papers and generally believed here for the last three or four days, that Gen. M'Clellan's army had left the peninsula, were untrue. Reasons are known here that, independent of Mr. Seward's statement, leads to the same belief. What may come in the future of course remains uncertain. Military matters, therefore, assume a profoundly mixed appearance. Secessionists have rumors of disaster to M'Clellan's army, loss of artillery, loss of shipping, &c., but in a very vague form, and not generally credited.

The Richmond Examiner of the 12th contains the following:

Among the prisoners who reached this city on Saturday and Sunday, was Brig. Gen. Prince and thirty-four officers, including one major and one colonel and other commissioned officers. They are at the Libbey prison. The officers from General Pope's command are reported kept in solitary confinement in conformity with instructions, and the rules as enforced will not be departed from under any consideration. About three hundred prisoners have arrived at the Libbey prison from Pope's army.

The Herald's Harrison's Landing correspondence of the 13th, says: Early this morning one of the truce boats arrived here with one hundred and forty-seven of our released prisoners from Richmond. Among them are Gens. McCall and Reynolds, Col. Simpson, Maj. Benning of 4th New Jersey, Col. Stockton of 16th Michigan, Lieut. Col. Switzer of 62d Pennsylvania, and other officers captured in the battles on the peninsula. Officers of high rank state that they have been treated with marked indignity by the rebel authorities. After 12 o'clock to-day these returned prisoners will be free to join their several commands. Rebel troops in considerable numbers were seen last evening and this morning on the south side of James river. Some of our returned prisoners state that the night before last, Monday night, over a hundred pieces of artillery passed their prison in Richmond on the way to reinforce Jackson, in front of Gen. Pope. For several days large bodies of troops have been marching off in the same direction.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, Aug. 15.

A Herald correspondent on board the gunboat Essex gives a graphic account of the attempt to capture the ram Arkansas on the 22d of July. The Essex advanced to where the ram was moored, under a tremendous fire from all the batteries. When within a few rods of the ram, the latter's bowline was let loose and she swung round with the tide, and thus partially escaped the blow from the Essex, which grazed her side, causing the Essex to run ashore for several minutes, under the water batteries, field artillery, musketry and heavy land batteries.

The Essex delivered at six yards distance a raking fire from her three 9 inch guns into the ram, going through her plating and killing 16 and wounding 30 of the rebel crew. The remainder of the crew of the ram fled to the shore, and if the fleet had properly supported the Essex, as agreed upon, the Arkansas would have been captured. The Essex escaped with only three shots that took effect, killing one of her men and wounding three. The Union fleet remained passive spectators of the brave action. The Essex is covered with indentations from the shots of hundreds of cannon. Her smoke stack is riddled, her wheel house shot through, and during the affair was hid from view by the splashing of the water thrown up by the iron shower about her.

Chicago, Aug. 15.

Times' Special—Memphis, Aug. 13th.—The battle commenced on the 7th at Tazewell, 7 miles from Cumberland Gap, between the confederate forces under Stevenson, numbering 12,000 to 15,000, and the federals at that place, numbering 3000.—The movement was made in front by Stevenson, while Gen. Burton gained the rear by forced marches and surrounded the federal forces. A desperate fight of four hours ensued, terminating in the surrender of the federals. They were driven back by superior numbers in front, and when in full retreat were assailed by a flanking force.—The rebels are thus in possession of East Tennessee again.

The next move will be on Buell with overwhelming forces. Beauregard is at Chattanooga, operating with Bragg. Their combined force is not less than 70,000. The rebel Gen. Caswell was killed near his residence in Knoxville on the 6th. A schooner from Havana ran the blockade of Mobile on the 7th with a cargo of ammunition, salt, cavalry equipments, &c.

A Vicksburg letter says the streets are beginning to assume their former lively appearance. Refugees are returning and opening their places of business. All damages to the city by federal shells will be repaired within a month.

Fort Monroe, Aug. 12.

The steamer Port Royal arrived early this morning with Gov. Sprague on board, from Acquia Creek. The mail boat from Harrison's Landing arrived at 4 o'clock. She brings no news of importance. The steamer Geo. Washington arrived last night at 7 o'clock from Harrison's Landing with 500 sick soldiers, most of whom are convalescent, and will be able to return to a duty in a week or two.

Sigel's Headquarters, Rapidian River, Aug. 15.

The enemy is still reported to be retreating beyond the Rapidian river, although they have a force on the other side with guns in position, and a large body of cavalry in their neighborhood supposed to be merely covering the retreat of the main body.

Gen. Milroy is in the advance with Gen. Bayard's cavalry and some artillery. The river is easily forded at many points. It is stated that Stonewall Jackson's army numbered at least 60,000 men. He has managed to move them all off safely, excepting a few stragglers. Some of the latter came into our camp last night, and said that almost all the Virginia soldiers would desert if they thought they would be well treated. A Union soldier was found in the woods on Wednesday with his musket barrel grasped in both hands. The stock was broken off, and eleven dead rebels were lying around him, some with their heads smashed, and others bruised in various ways—all dead.

This shows with what desperation the union hero had fought for his life, but without avail. His body was pierced with three balls. Many of the enemy's dead were left unburied, while others were only covered. In many places arms and feet were seen above the earth. Some 36 wounded prisoners, concealed near the battle field in houses, were brought in to-day.

Flour market less active. Prices unchanged. Wheat less active, and prices scarcely so buoyant. Sales 60,000 bushels. 1,13@1,20 Chicago Spring; 1,17@1,21 Milwaukee Club.

☞ Lieut. Shipman has sent a letter home, intended for the historical society, written by Jeff. Thompson to Gen. Grant, relating to an exchange of prisoners. It is endorsed with certain comments on the subject, in the handwriting of Gen. Grant.

☞ Crawford county has raised her quota of volunteers.

Well Done for Old Grant.—Grant county has already enlisted 900 volunteers, 400 over her quota. She has made application to organize a full regiment.

☞ The editors and proprietors of the Baltimore News have been sent to Fort McHenry.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal electors of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of national trial and peril, will sustain the state and federal administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserved, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected thro'out every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the republicans in electing delegates to this convention.

Each Assembly and Senatorial district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention.

The Arkansas Blown Up.

A dispatch from John C. Breckinridge to Mobile, dated August 6th, says that the federal gunboats attacked the Arkansas that morning, near Baton Rouge, and after a gallant resistance she was blown up by her crew.

Baton Rouge.

Breckinridge telegraphs, ten miles from Baton Rouge, that the battle there "was without any decisive results." He says that Gen. Williams and several other prominent federal officers were killed. The result looks as if Breckinridge was defeated and driven out of Baton Rouge.

Arrest of an Ohio Traitor.

Dr. Edson B. Olds, a prominent Ohio traitor, second only to Vallandigham, has been arrested for disloyalty, using treasonable language, and interfering with enlistments. The warrant was signed by C. P. Wolcott, Assistant Secretary of War. Olds made some resistance, but was overpowered. Vallandigham is more cautious in his language and acts, but not less atrocious in his sentiments. He should be the next man arrested. Olds has been sent to Fort Lafayette.

Adjutant General's Office,
Madison, Aug. 14, 1862.

To avoid misunderstanding, the public are hereby informed that the quota of men will be assigned to each town, upon the same principle that the quota has been assigned to counties; and when each town furnishes its quota, it will be exempt from draft. The apportionment to towns will be published so soon as completed, which will probably be within a week.

By order of the Commander in Chief.
Aug. Gaylord,
Adjutant General of Wisconsin.

Enlistments in the Old Regiments to be Credited in our Quota.

The following dispatch was received last evening from the Adjutant General of this state:

Madison, August 14.

To Gazette Office:—Recruits for the old regiments will be credited on your quota. Aug. Gaylord,
Adjutant General.

Disaster in East Tennessee.

The defeat and surrender of the federal army near Cumberland Gap is confirmed. Three thousand of our troops fought 15000 of the enemy four hours, before they were surrounded and overpowered.

Gen. Buell is also thought to be in danger.

Illinois Constitution.—The returns from the Illinois soldiers who have voted on the new constitution have been received. The majority against the constitution is 8,464, making the aggregate in the state against the constitution, 25,525.

Alleged Rebel Victory in East Tennessee.—The rebels publish a dispatch from Knoxville, which states that they gained a victory over the federal forces near Tazewell, on the 6th, and that "the enemy was in full retreat." Tazewell is about twenty miles from Cumberland Gap; our forces there were in command of General Morgan.

The Late Battle.—Gen. Pope in his report of the late battle, estimates our loss at 1500 killed, wounded and missing; 290 were taken prisoners; a large proportion were killed. He says the enemy's loss was greater than ours. He pays a high compliment to Gen. Banks.

From New Orleans.—Gen. Butler suppressed the Picayune for condemning Gen. Pope's order for levying contributions on the country in which his army may operate. After an apology and a promise not to offend again, the order in relation to the Picayune was rescinded.

Gen. Phelps has resigned his command because Gen. Butler refused to furnish him with arms and clothing for five companies of negroes whom he had organized. Gen. Butler submits the whole question to the department, without giving any opinion.

☞ The guerrillas in Missouri, between the Hannibal road and the North Missouri road, have been scattered and disbanded, going south in confusion.

A Lawyer in a Fix.

Did I ever tell you about the Newark lawyer's first case in Minnesota? No! Well, then, here it goes, for its worth circulating. You are no doubt well aware that many sprigs of aristocracy in eastern cities labor under the impression that in order to extinguish all other lights they have only to emigrate to some western town and dazzle the natives. Many a man has thus started out in search of wool, and been himself badly shorn. And in no town in the world does this class stand a poorer chance than in St. Paul, Minnesota.

So much for introduction, and a key to the fact why the mass is made up of the ablest lawyers, judges, clergy, merchants, capitalists, and speculators, who overtaxed their mental energies in eastern cities. And now to the story:

It was a pleasant morning in the month of August—(no matter what year)—while the large and splendid "Key City," (Capt. Jones Worden and Clerk L. Eldred,) was proudly ploughing her way up the Mississippi from La Crosse, that a brilliantly dressed gentleman of about twenty-five years of age was to be seen leisurely reclining on a railing in front of the office, puffing the ten-cent regalia just taken from his pocket, and evidently wondering if the half civilized people of St. Paul ever smoked anything more expensive than pipes.

Turning to a plainly dressed gentleman at his side, he exclaimed:

"Ah, you—ah, acquainted in St. Paul?"

"Oh, yes; I know most of the leading citizens," was the reply.

"Do you, indeed?" exclaimed the flashy gentleman. "Well, then, I am in luck; pretty lively place?"

"Quite so, sir; every man has something to do, and all are making a good living."

"Do you live—ah, in St. Paul?"

"I do."

"Have you any lawyers there?"

"Quite too many, sir. That is my profession."

The dandy looked at the man at first with incredulity, and then, with a patronizing air, said:

"I have reference, my good fellow, to first-class attorneys, men of education, who graduated at college!"

A light seemed to break in upon the man's mind as he replied:

"Ah! I see what you mean! No, we have no lawyers of education! Are you a lawyer, sir?"

Inflating himself with importance and great condescension, he replied:

"A graduate, sir, of the best college in New Jersey; and, if sufficient encouragement is held out by the members of the bar in St. Paul, I will stop among them, and give them the benefit of my knowledge."

At the same time the brilliant young sprig produced and handed over a very miniature card, which read:

G—— E——L,
Newark, N. J.

The man seemed delighted. He claimed the privilege at once of extending to the stranger the hospitalities of the bar of St. Paul; and declared that within two hours after the arrival of the boat a public reception should be given him.

As the sun was sinking in the west the Key City touched at the levee at St. Paul, and the distinguished stranger was at once conducted to a leading hotel to await the arrival of the city bar in a body.

In about two hours they arrived, and were presented in due form by the man who came up on the boat with the brilliant scholar, and who had introduced himself as Mr. Spotless. Then came Judge Kirby, Judge Allfish, Advocate Bloodeye, lawyers Keen, Knifepoint, Badax, Harvey, and some two dozen others—all anxious to show their respect to the lawyer who had been "edicated" and was "a gwine for to show 'm how they dew things in Jersey."

During the excitement of shaking hands and taking drinks for the twentieth time, from the row of bottles placed upon the table, a long gaunt six and a half footer came in with boots off, and without hat, coat, or vest, and in a stentorian voice exclaimed:

"Evenin' court is now open, and I'll shoot every man who don't attend in three minutes!"

There was at once a scattering from the room. Some escaped by one door and some by another; but Judge Kirby grasped the Jersey lawyer by the hand and whispered:

"Follow me and you will be safe!"

Escaping by a back door, and threading innumerable dark lanes and cowyards, the Judge and his young friend at length reached the extensive livery stable at All-bones—the maddest wag in the state.

Here they found a row of twelve barrels for the jury to sit upon, inverted water pails for the lawyers, and a bundle for the Judge.

The prisoner at the bar—who was being tried for the murder of his mother with a butcher knife—was seated on a wheelbarrow, smoking an Indian pipe, and swearing that he could whip any three men on the jury.

"Gentlemen!" gasped the educated man "can it be possible that you conduct courts in this manner in St. Paul?"

"It's only lately, that we have had so nice a room as this," replied a half dozen lawyers. "We used to meet in Bloodeye's woodshed; but this is extra."

The presiding judge now called the court to order, and asked the prisoner if he had any counsel.

"Not a one," was the loud reply; but if that ere chap with nice clothes will take a hold of the job, I'll give him two cows and a hundred acres of perary.

Young Jersey was undecided and wavering, but at length stuttered out that he wished to be excused; whereupon the prisoner sprang to the length of his chain, upset the wheelbarrow, and swore if the man didn't take hold of the case and clear him, that he would follow him from house to house, and drink the last drop of his heart's blood. This decided the matter at once; and the proud sprig of aristocracy felt that his own life, as well as that of his client, depended upon the amount and quality of forensic ability that he could bring to bear upon the jury. On his rising to address the court, the presiding judge indignantly informed him that no college baby, with a coat on, would be permitted to speechify in that temple.

George removed his coat, and was peremptorily ordered to remove his vest, necktie, suspenders, boots and stockings. The orders were all obeyed at the pistol's muzzle, held by the crier of the court—a convalescent invalid six feet two inches in his stockings, and weighing about two hundred and six pounds.

At this stage of the proceedings, two of the jury—who had been playing cards for a gallon of whisky—got into a quarrel, and one drove his bowie knife, apparently up to the hilt, into the other's body. The corpse was conveyed from the room as unconcernedly as if it had been the body of a defunct hog, and the crier screamed at the top of his voice, "Go on with the court!"

George had been a member of the Sons of Malta, or at least he had made his way into the lodge at Trenton a few winters ago, when they were wont to put the candidates over the "rugged path" with bells on.—George, we say, had been there, but now he was frightened, and made up his mind to save his precious life by flight.

With a bound that would have been creditable to the Ravels in their palmiest days, he leaped over a fanning mill, eluded the grasp of his client, who had broken from the wheelbarrow, and by the aid of the almost impenetrable darkness, succeeded in hiding himself in a lumber yard till near morning, when, stealing himself down to the levee in his almost nude state, he ran on board of a small steamer and begged the clerk, in the name of pity and humanity, to give him a passage down the river to some town five hundred miles from St. Paul. He would give no explanation of his undressed condition, but only begged to be secreted until the boat was at least a hundred miles down the river.

On coming out of his state room the next morning, when the boat was near La Crosse, he was informed by the smiling clerk that there was a bundle of clothing and a trunk in the office for him, placed on the boat at St. Paul, with his address, by Lawyer Spotless, a man of fine character, but no education.

"I thank him for my baggage," gasped the student, turning pale at the recollection of the midnight scene in the barn; "but these Minnesota lawyers are worse than savages. They'll gamble, smoke, drink rum, and murder in the court room, and cut the throat of an educated man with as little compunction of conscience as they'd stab a toad. I've heard it said that St. Paul is a beautiful place. It may be in the day time, but it is an awful place in the night. And if it is a healthy place for invalids, it is an unhealthy one for lawyers. I'm an educated lawyer myself. I've had my first case in Minnesota, and it's my last."

On arriving at La Crosse, he went to "Brick Pomeroy," of the Democrat, and tried to get him to publish the story of his St. Paul experience; but "Brick" indignantly replied:

"Can't do it, my boy! 'Fraid 'taint true! It's too funny for reality, and the Democrat never deals in fiction."

Being determined to relate his experience, however, he then hired a hall and advertised a 'lecture on emigration;' and after he had received at the door nearly enough to cover the expenses, the Deputy Mayor stepped up and exclaimed:

"Have you got a license, sir, for this 'ere show!"

"This is not a show, and I have no license."

"Well, I want ten dollars, and I don't care a red whether you call it a show or an exhibition."

"But, my dear friend—"

"Don't but me, sir! I know what the law is—I hold office—and you must pay up or mizzle!"

And so he mizzled; and when on the point of returning home to old Essex, by overland easy stages, on foot, was met by his former friend of the boat, who explained to him that the court scene was all a joke, and prevailed on him to return and locate. He dropped his airs at once, and soon became a favorite.

He now holds an important office at St. Paul.—Cor. N. Y. Clipper.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

Camp Clear Creek, Mis.,
August 8th, 1862.

We are still encamped on the same ground as when I wrote to you last. Two regiments from our brigade have left us, one the 47th Illinois, is stationed at Kenzie, and the 26th Illinois at Danville.—Three divisions of the army are encamped here, one is at Jacinto. The army of the Tennessee and the army of the Ohio are somewhat scattered, guarding railroads, &c., from Tuscumbia to Memphis. We have a camp of instruction here, and drill two hours every morning and evening. The camps are kept very clean, and we have good water. The grounds are policed every morning by the Pioneers, and the regiment is in fine condition. We have been in this camp now about seven weeks and not a man has died here. The regiment has lost some seven or eight men since the evacuation of Corinth. They died in the general hospital. Some of the Ohio regiments encamped near us have lost forty men in the same time. We have laid out and fenced a regimental burial ground, but as yet it is uninhabited. Not one of my company at present is on the sick list. I have three men at Keokuk hospital sick.—They were sent there about the 15th of June. Their names are John Crymble, Wm. Kelly and W. H. Soper. I wonder that the men keep so healthy in this climate. The weather has been intensely hot for the past week, but is somewhat cooler to-day.

The guard comes very heavy on the men here. We furnish grand guard twice a week, besides brigade and regimental guard every day, and division guard once a week; but the men feel better satisfied since the late order, requiring commanders not to furnish guards for the protection of rebel corn fields, and pig pens. The guards have all been taken off from the rebel houses and wells, and nothing but camps and government property is now guarded. No citizens are allowed in the lines from Tuscumbia to Memphis. The rebels around here think it very naughty in our generals not letting them into our camps to look around and take sketches. We have caught one or two lately here with the papers in their boots, and if justice is shown them they will be hanged by their neck until they are dead.

Our troops at Ripley and Jacinto have seized a large amount of cotton and turned it over to the government. Long trains of army wagons pass here daily loaded with it; on every wagon we see from one to five contrabands coming in to seek protection and aid in putting down the rebellion. In one wagon I noticed a smart, intelligent boy about twelve years old. He was piled in the cotton, and stuck out his black head as he passed us and said, "I'se a confiscated nigger." I have now a smart boy with me, and apparently the happiest negro in the army. He has learned his letters since he has been with me, although I have only had him about two months. He says Lieut. King must buy him a spelling-book when he comes back, and wishes me to say to him, in the language of the soldier, that "he must not go back on him," but thinks the Lieut. might, in all the letters he has written to the men in the company, say something "about the poor black boy."

First Corporal W. J. E. McNair, of my company, is detailed for recruiting service, and is ordered to Janesville. He will leave here in a day or two for Wisconsin, and no doubt will give you some news from this quarter.

Our regiment now musters 650 men for duty, and is the largest regiment now in this army. The men are getting impatient and are longing for cool weather again, so as to commence active operations. The soldiers do not like to be in one place long at a time.

You may believe about half what you hear about the marauding bands about here. The stories get terribly exaggerated through the camps, and by the time they get to Cairo they are about 100 per cent worse than when they happened, if they ever did happen at all.

I have now occupied more time than I intended, and must close. My best wishes to all—hoping we may all get through safe, and return at the end of the war to our friends and families to enjoy the blessings of peace with our friends and neighbors, who have but little conception of the condition of thousands of women and children in the southern states.

Yours, &c., W. B. Britton,
Capt. Co. G, 8th Wis. Vols.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Harrisburg, Aug. 14.

From present indications, Pennsylvania will have fifteen regiments in the field during the week, and others forming rapidly. By order of the Secretary of war, Governor Curtin orders that, after the 15th, no bounty be paid to volunteers in new regiments, but only to volunteers to regiments now in the field and to fill up new regiments now organizing. On August 22d, all incomplete regiments will be consolidated. Volunteers to fill up old regiments will be received and paid bounty, &c., till September 1st. Monday, September 1st, the draft will commence for the 300,000, and continue till completed. No officer now in the field, in regular or volunteers, will, under any circumstances, be detailed to accept a new command.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

Acquia Creek, Va., Aug. 14.

A collision occurred on the Potomac last night, off Ragged Point, between the steamers Peabody and West Point, involving the loss of 73 lives. The West Point was bound to this place from Newport News, with convalescent soldiers of Gen. Burnside's army. She sunk in ten minutes. The Peabody brought the rescued soldiers and passengers to this point. There were 254 soldiers, four officers, thirty ladies, and one child on the West Point. At Fort Monroe she took 17 men aboard, making 279 in all. The accident occurred Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The West Point began sinking fast. The Peabody, which was partially disabled, could only render assistance with boats. There were several vessels in the river, which rendered all the assistance possible, and by their combined efforts 203 persons were rescued. All the crew except a foreigner were saved. The boat was beached as soon as possible, and sunk, in about four fathoms. A portion of the missing may have been saved, as several small boats and schooners were seen to pick up men. The two captains have been put in charge of the provost marshal here, and the affair is being investigated.

New York, August 15th.

The following dispatch appears in the Charleston Courier of August 1st:

Richmond, July 29th.

The opinion gains ground here that Gen. M'Clellan is gradually evacuating his position at Berkley, and is reinforcing Gen. Pope with the bulk of his army. The number of yankee transports in the James river is immense, and great activity is observable among them.

A Washington dispatch says: Secretary Seward stated, last evening, that the current stories published in some of the papers and generally believed here for the last three or four days, that Gen. M'Clellan's army had left the peninsula, were untrue. Reasons are known here that, independent of Mr. Seward's statement, leads to the same belief. What may come in the future of course remains uncertain. Military matters, therefore, assume a profoundly mixed appearance. Secessionists have rumors of disaster to M'Clellan's army, loss of artillery, loss of shipping, &c., but in a very vague form, and not generally credited.

The Richmond Examiner of the 12th contains the following:

Among the prisoners who reached this city on Saturday and Sunday, was Brig. Gen. Prince and thirty-four officers, including one major and one colonel and other commissioned officers. They are at the Libbey prison. The officers from General Pope's command are reported kept in solitary confinement in conformity with instructions, and the rules as enforced will not be departed from under any consideration. About three hundred prisoners have arrived at the Libbey prison from Pope's army.

The Herald's Harrison's Landing correspondence of the 13th, says: Early this morning one of the truce boats arrived here with one hundred and forty-seven of our released prisoners from Richmond. Among them are Gens. McCall and Reynolds, Col. Simpson, Maj. Benning of 4th New Jersey, Col. Stockton of 16th Michigan, Lieut. Col. Switzer of 62d Pennsylvania, and other officers captured in the battles on the peninsula, Officers of high rank state that they have been treated with marked indignity by the rebel authorities. After 12 o'clock to-day these returned prisoners will be free to join their several commands. Rebel troops in considerable numbers were seen last evening and this morning on the south side of James river. Some of our returned prisoners state that the night before last, Monday night, over a hundred pieces of artillery passed their prison in Richmond on the way to reinforce Jackson, in front of Gen. Pope. For several days large bodies of troops have been marching off in the same direction.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, Aug. 15.

A Herald correspondent on board the gunboat Essex gives a graphic account of the attempt to capture the ram Arkansas on the 22d of July. The Essex advanced to where the ram was moored, under a tremendous fire from all the batteries. When within a few rods of the ram, the latter's bowline was let loose and she swung round with the tide, and thus partially escaped the blow from the Essex, which grazed her side, causing the Essex to run ashore for several minutes, under the water batteries, field artillery, musketry and heavy land batteries.

The Essex delivered at six yards distance a raking fire from her three 9 inch guns into the ram, going through her plating and killing 15 and wounding 30 of the rebel crew. The remainder of the crew of the ram fled to the shore, and if the fleet had properly supported the Essex, as agreed upon, the Arkansas would have been captured. The Essex escaped with only three shots that took effect, killing one of her men and wounding three. The Union fleet remained passive spectators of the brave action. The Essex is covered with indentations from the shots of hundreds of cannon. Her smoke stack is riddled, her wheel house shot through, and during the affair was hid from view by the splashing of the water thrown up by the iron shower about her.

Chicago, Aug. 15.

Times' Special—Memphis, Aug. 13th.—The battle commenced on the 7th at Tazewell, 7 miles from Cumberland Gap, between the confederate forces under Stevenson, numbering 12,000 to 15,000, and the federals at that place, numbering 3000.—The movement was made in front by Stevenson, while Gen. Burton gained the rear by forced marches and surrounded the federal forces. A desperate fight of four hours ensued, terminating in the surrender of the federals. They were driven back by superior numbers in front, and when in full retreat were assailed by a flanking force.—The rebels are thus in possession of East Tennessee again.

The next move will be on Buell with overwhelming forces. Beauregard is at Chattanooga, operating with Bragg. Their combined force is not less than 70,000. The rebel Gen. Caswell was killed near his residence in Knoxville on the 6th. A schooner from Havana ran the blockade of Mobile on the 7th with a cargo of ammunition, salt, cavalry equipments, &c.

A Vicksburg letter says the streets are beginning to assume their former lively appearance. Refugees are returning and opening their places of business. All damages to the city by federal shells will be repaired within a month.

Fort Monroe, Aug. 12.

The steamer Port Royal arrived early this morning with Gov. Sprague on board, from Acquia Creek. The mail boat from Harrison's Landing arrived at 4 o'clock. She brings no news of importance. The steamer Geo. Washington arrived last night at 7 o'clock from Harrison's Landing with 500 sick soldiers, most of whom are convalescent, and will be able to return to a duty in a week or two.

Sigel's Headquarters, Rapidian River, Aug. 15.

The enemy is still reported to be retreating beyond the Rapidian river, although they have a force on the other side with guns in position, and a large body of cavalry in their neighborhood supposed to be merely covering the retreat of the main body.

Gen. Milroy is in the advance with Gen. Bayard's cavalry and some artillery. The river is easily forded at many points. It is stated that Stonewall Jackson's army numbered at least 60,000 men. He has managed to move them all off safely, excepting a few stragglers. Some of the latter came into our camp last night, and said that almost all the Virginia soldiers would desert if they thought they would be well treated. A Union soldier was found in the woods on Wednesday with his musket barrel grasped in both hands. The stock was broken off, and eleven dead rebels were lying around him, some with their heads smashed, and others bruised in various ways—all dead.

This shows with what desperation the union hero had fought for his life, but without avail. His body was pierced with three balls. Many of the enemy's dead were left unburied, while others were only covered. In many places arms and feet were seen above the earth. Some 36 wounded prisoners, concealed near the battle field in houses, were brought in to-day.

New York, Aug. 15th.

Flour market less active. Prices unchanged. Wheat less active, and prices scarcely so buoyant. Sales 60,000 bushels. 1,13@1,20 Chicago Spring; 1,17@1,24 Milwaukee Club.

☞ Lieut. Shipman has sent a letter home, intended for the historical society, written by Jeff. Thompson to Gen. Grant, relating to an exchange of prisoners. It is endorsed with certain comments on the subject, in the handwriting of Gen. Grant.

☞ Crawford county has raised her quota of volunteers.

Well Done for Old Grant.—Grant county has already enlisted 900 volunteers, 400 over her quota. She has made application to organize a full regiment.

☞ The editors and proprietors of the Baltimore News have been sent to Fort McHenry.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES
A Slight Cold, Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.
Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.
Public Speakers & Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice.*

W. A. NORTON,
} Republican County Committee.

Adjourned.

The war meeting last evening adjourned to this evening, in consequence of the occupation of the court room by Capt. Miles' company to elect their officers.

There will be some rousing reports made to-night.

GREEN COUNTY.—We learn from Dr. Warren that Green county has enlisted 400 men, while her quota is 355. "Little Green" is sound.

HAMBUJER.—We understand that Prof. Hambujer donated the Ladies' Aid Society five dollars from the proceeds of his exhibition last evening.

A GOOD TURNOUT.—The patriotic citizens of Center made a fine display at the pic nic to-day. They came into town with a procession of 17 wagons, (two of them drawn by four horses each,) two large and beautiful banners, and a band of music. The twenty-two volunteers obtained at the meeting in the town last night were in the procession.

A JANESVILLE BOY IN NORTH CAROLINA.—We have before us "The New Era" published at Washington, N. C., from which we learn that that town is placed under martial law, and that Charles A. Lyon, formerly of this city, is provost marshal. At the time of receiving the disastrous news of the defeat of our army at Bull Run, young Lyon was reading law in this city, and he at once arose from his table, threw down his law books and with his eyes filled with tears made the following declaration: "I have got through reading law until this rebellion is put down." As there was no chance to enlist here at the time, he at once went to his former home in Massachusetts, and enlisted as a PRIVATE in the 24th regiment M. V., which accompanied the Burnside expedition. He was in the battles of Roanoke Island and Newbern, and was subsequently detailed to assist in raising and organizing the 1st regiment North Carolina volunteers, which is now stationed at Washington, N. C., and in one company of which he holds a commission. He is only twenty-two years old, unassuming, brave and reliable, and will make his mark. One of his first orders forbid the sale of intoxicating liquors in the town.

MILITARY ELECTION.—At a meeting of the "Janesville Blues," held at the Court Room on the 14th day of August, 1862, for the purpose of electing company officers, Isaac Miles was called to the chair, and E. H. Pullan and C. I. Miltimore were appointed secretaries. On calling the roll 92 members answered to their names. On motion ISAAC MILES was, by acclamation, unanimously elected Captain, who immediately arose and acknowledged the compliment in a few pertinent remarks, at the close of which three rousing cheers were given for "Our Captain."

On motion R. Sprague and Samuel Jones were appointed tellers, and the election was completed by ballot, resulting as follows:

For 1st Lieutenant, CALVIN REEVES.

Sergeants.—1st, H. R. Stetson; 2d, John B. Bullock; 3d, P. D. Scofield; 4th, R. P. Young; 5th, A. O. Warner.

On motion the Captain was requested to appoint the Corporals. The meeting then adjourned with three deafening cheers for the officers elect.

ISAAC MILES, Chairman.
E. H. PULLAN, C. I. MILTIMORE, } Secretaries.

MILITARY NOTICE.—It is generally known in this vicinity, that Ira Miltimore, Esq., has received a recruiting commission, and is nobly at work. Lieut. James Mills, formerly of the 5th Wisconsin regiment, has received a commission, and we understand is going to co-operate with Mr. Miltimore in raising a company. The age, experience, and business capacity of these gentlemen should, and we think will be a guarantee of speedy success in filling their company. Captain Miles' company being full, let us all take hold with a will and assist Messrs. Miltimore and Mills. P.

COMMON COUNCIL.—There was no quorum last evening, and a special meeting was ordered Monday evening.

LOST.—A memorandum book, somewhere between Young's slaughter house and the engine house of company No. 3. The finder is requested to leave it at this office. A. H. JOHNSON.

FIRST RATE WORK.—Recruiting officers Scott and Wemple closed yesterday afternoon with nine names on their muster roll, and to-day, at four o'clock, have 56 on the roll.

An aimless man is likely to remain a nameless man.

Meetings in the County.

Meetings were held last evening in several towns in the county to aid the work of subscriptions to the county bounty fund and enlistments. We annex a notice of those which have been reported to us.

Milton.—The amount of subscriptions was reported at $1634, with two school districts to hear from. Several former subscriptions were doubled. The meeting was addressed by the Revs. Mr. King, Hull and Smith of Milton, Messrs. Sloan and Bennett of this city, and Lieut. Wemple of Bradford. Fourteen volunteers had been previously obtained, and several were added at the meeting.

Center.—The full quota of men have been raised. The citizens voted a bounty of forty dollars in addition to the county bounty, to volunteers from the town. The meeting was addressed by Hon. E. A. Foot and several volunteers.

Johnstown.—The full quota of scrip is taken, and more can be subscribed if necessary. It was voted to add $40 to the county scrip to each volunteer from the town, and one-half of the amount required for 23 volunteers was subscribed. Seven volunteers have been procured. J. I. Foot, the county superintendent, made an excellent speech.

Lima.—The amount of county scrip subscribed is $1600, and a bounty of $40 additional to the county bounty was pledged by the meeting. Seventeen of the 19 volunteers required had been obtained.

The Excursion.

The excursion train from Chicago arrived at half-past 12 o'clock, with eleven passenger cars filled. They were escorted to the grove prepared for them, and a welcoming speech made by the Rev. Mr. Curtis of this city. We are compelled to defer further notice until to-morrow.

County Bounty.

The Board of Supervisors, at their meeting to-day, resolved to extend the offer of the county bounty to the 1st of September, if necessary to use that time to fill the quota of the county.

EIGHTH REGIMENT.—We have an interesting and encouraging letter from Captain Britton, which we commend to the perusal of all.

☞ Dr. Frances Huebschman, of Milwaukee, has been appointed major of the 26th regiment.

☞ J. A. Sleeper, of this city, addressed a war meeting in Madison, Wednesday evening. The Journal says his remarks were stirring and well received. Among other things, he said if Rock county didn't raise her quota before the 15th, they would make that the longest day in the year.

THE FIRST ARREST.—The first arrest made in this city under the order of the secretary of war relative to discouraging enlistments, was made yesterday by order of Mayor Doe. He is the same individual who supplied the rebel prisoners with whiskey when on their way to Camp Randall last spring, and was taken there in company with his secesh brethren. His offence was "blowing" against enlistments. Sheriff Putnam has him in charge, and as the writ of habeas corpus has been suspended in such cases, we see no way for him to get out of jail until the end of the war.

ALL VOTERS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY.—The following dispatch has been received at Milwaukee:

MADISON, Aug. 13.

To E. H. Brodhead or Lieut. Col. Page, Milwaukee:

The Secretary of War says that all foreigners who have voted at our elections are regarded as having exercised a franchise that subjects them to military duty. A man who votes must bear arms.

E. SALOMON,
Governor of Wisconsin.

FULTON FULL.—Mr. H. S. Swift, of Edgerton, reports to us that Fulton has filled her quota of volunteers and scrip.

BELOIT.—We learn from Mr. Smith, of the Journal, that the city of Beloit is nearly or quite full, and the town of Beloit has an excess in the apportionment of volunteers.

ENLISTMENTS.—We find, on inquiry at the recruiting office of Messrs. Wemple & Scott, that at four o'clock this afternoon, they had 56 names enrolled. Mr. Miltimore has 44, and Mr. Harlow 17. We could obtain no information from other recruiting officers, as they are probably at the pic nic grounds.

☞ The city of Watertown has raised a surplus of 50 volunteers over her quota.

☞ Hiram Price, of Davenport, Iowa, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress.

The quota of New York city under the draft is 12,519.

Mr. Robert Dale Owen has written a letter of considerable length to Mr. Stanton, advocating the emancipation of slaves throughout the United States. Mr. Owen is a democrat.

The Racine & Mississippi railroad is now completed through to Savannah, and is thus brought in direct communication with the Father of Waters.

James F. Wilson has been nominated as the republican candidate for congress in the first district of Iowa, Hiram Price in the second, and J. B. Grinnell in the fourth.

Somebody who writes more truthfully than poetically says:

"An angel now-a days, without money, is not thought so much of as a devil with a bag full of guineas."

ENLIST? ENLIST??

MEN OF WISCONSIN, will you wait to be drafted and then lose all the bounty. A splendid chance is offered those who are desirous of enlisting in Capt. Crandall's company, 22d Regiment Wis. Vol., under Col. Utley. Furloughs will be given to enlisted men for fifteen days or more. Each recruit will receive, on enlisting, his first months pay, $13, $25 of the one hundred dollars bounty offered by the general government, $50 bounty from the state of Wisconsin and $2 premium, making in all the handsome sum of $90 besides the 160 acres of land and the remaining $75 bounty at the close of the war. The families of volunteers will be provided for. Recruits for this company will be boarded and lodged at the Hyatt House. If your country is worth saving call at the recruiting office of Capt. Crandall's company, 22d Regiment, Wis. Vol, two doors east of the express office, Hyatt House Block, Janesville, Rock County, and enroll your names.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $87

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best

☞ Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, price, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, badly made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, any variety of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Dated August 14th, 1862.

J. J. R. PEASE, J. K. FRENCH, A. M. CARTER, W. A. NORTON, } Republican County Committee.

Adjourned.

The war meeting last evening adjourned to this evening, in consequence of the occupation of the court room by Capt. Miles' company to elect their officers.

There will be some rousing reports made to-night.

GREEN COUNTY.—We learn from Dr. Warren that Green county has enlisted 400 men, while her quota is 355. "Little Green" is sound.

HAMBUJER.—We understand that Prof. Hambujer donated the Ladies' Aid Society five dollars from the proceeds of his exhibition last evening.

A GOOD TURNOUT.—The patriotic citizens of Center made a fine display at the pic nic to-day. They came into town with a procession of 17 wagons, (two of them drawn by four horses each,) two large and beautiful banners, and a band of music. The twenty-two volunteers obtained at the meeting in the town last night were in the procession.

A JANESVILLE BOY IN NORTH CAROLINA.—We have before us "The New Era" published at Washington, N. C., from which we learn that that town is placed under martial law, and that Charles A. Lyon, formerly of this city, is provost marshal. At the time of receiving the disastrous news of the defeat of our army at Bull Run, young Lyon was reading law in this city, and he at once arose from his table, threw down his law books and with his eyes filled with tears made the following declaration: "I have got through reading law until this rebellion is put down." As there was no chance to enlist here at the time, he at once went to his former home in Massachusetts, and enlisted as a PRIVATE in the 24th regiment M. V., which accompanied the Burnside expedition. He was in the battles of Roanoke Island and Newbern, and was subsequently detailed to assist in raising and organizing the 1st regiment North Carolina volunteers, which is now stationed at Washington, N. C., and in one company of which he holds a commission. He is only twenty-two years old, unassuming, brave and reliable, and will make his mark. One of his first orders forbid the sale of intoxicating liquors in the town.

MILITARY ELECTION.—At a meeting of the "Janesville Blues," held at the Court Room on the 14th day of August, 1862, for the purpose of electing company officers, Isaac Miles was called to the chair, and E. H. Pullan and C. I. Miltimore were appointed secretaries. On calling the roll 92 members answered to their names. On motion ISAAC MILES was, by acclamation, unanimously elected Captain, who immediately arose and acknowledged the compliment in a few pertinent remarks, at the close of which three rousing cheers were given for "Our Captain."

On motion R. Sprague and Samuel Jones were appointed tellers, and the election was completed by ballot, resulting as follows:

For 1st Lieutenant, CALVIN REEVES.

Sergeants.—1st, H. R. Stetson; 2d, John B. Bullock; 3d, P. D. Scofield; 4th, R. P. Young; 5th, A. O. Warner.

On motion the Captain was requested to appoint the Corporals. The meeting then adjourned with three deafening cheers for the officers elect.

ISAAC MILES, Chairman.

E. H. PULLAN, C. I. MILTIMORE, } Secretaries.

MILITARY NOTICE.—It is generally known in this vicinity, that Ira Miltimore, Esq., has received a recruiting commission, and is nobly at work. Lieut. James Mills, formerly of the 5th Wisconsin regiment, has received a commission, and we understand is going to co-operate with Mr. Miltimore in raising a company. The age, experience, and business capacity of these gentlemen should, and we think will be a guarantee of speedy success in filling their company. Captain Miles' company being full, let us all take hold with a will and assist Messrs. Miltimore and Mills. P.

COMMON COUNCIL.—There was no quorum last evening, and a special meeting was ordered Monday evening.

LOST.—A memorandum book, somewhere between Young's slaughter house and the engine house of company No. 3. The finder is requested to leave it at this office. A. E. JOHNSON.

FIRST RATE WORK.—Recruiting officers Scott and Wemple closed yesterday afternoon with nine names on their muster roll, and to-day, at four o'clock, have 56 on the roll.

An aimless man is likely to remain a nameless man.

Meetings in the County.

Meetings were held last evening in several towns in the county to aid the work of subscriptions to the county bounty fund and enlistments. We annex a notice of those which have been reported to us.

Milton.—The amount of subscriptions was reported at $1634, with two school districts to hear from. Several former subscriptions were doubled. The meeting was addressed by the Revs. Mr. King, Hull and Smith of Milton, Messrs. Sloan and Bennett of this city, and Lieut. Wemple of Bradford. Fourteen volunteers had been previously obtained, and several were added at the meeting.

Centre.—The full quota of men have been raised. The citizens voted a bounty of forty dollars in addition to the county bounty, to volunteers from the town. The meeting was addressed by Hon. E. A. Foot and several volunteers.

Johnstown.—The full quota of scrip is taken, and more can be subscribed if necessary. It was voted to add $40 to the county scrip to each volunteer from the town, and one-half of the amount required for 28 volunteers was subscribed. Seven volunteers have been procured. J. I. Foot, the county superintendent, made an excellent speech.

Lima.—The amount of county scrip subscribed is $1600, and a bounty of $40 additional to the county bounty was pledged by the meeting. Seventeen of the 19 volunteers required had been obtained.

The Excursion.

The excursion train from Chicago arrived at half-past 12 o'clock, with eleven passenger cars filled. They were escorted to the grove prepared for them, and a welcoming speech made by the Rev. Mr. Curtis of this city. We are compelled to defer further notice until to-morrow.

County Bounty.

The Board of Supervisors, at their meeting to-day, resolved to extend the offer of the county bounty to the 1st of September, if necessary to use that time to fill the quota of the county.

EIGHTH REGIMENT.—We have an interesting and encouraging letter from Captain Britton, which we commend to the perusal of all.

☞ Dr. Frances Huebschman, of Milwaukee, has been appointed major of the 26th regiment.

☞ J. A. Sleeper, of this city, addressed a war meeting in Madison, Wednesday evening. The Journal says his remarks were stirring and well received. Among other things, he said if Rock county didn't raise her quota before the 15th, they would make that the longest day in the year.

THE FIRST ARREST.—The first arrest made in this city under the order of the secretary of war relative to discouraging enlistments, was made yesterday by order of Mayor Doe. He is the same individual who supplied the rebel prisoners with whiskey when on their way to Camp Randall last spring, and was taken there in company with his secesh brethren. His offence was "blowing" against enlistments. Sheriff Putnam has him in charge, and as the writ of habeas corpus has been suspended in such cases, we see no way for him to get out of jail until the end of the war.

ALL VOTERS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY.—The following dispatch has been received at Milwaukee:

MADISON, Aug. 13.

To E. H. Brodhead or Lieut. Col. Page, Milwaukee:

The Secretary of War says that all foreigners who have voted at our elections are regarded as having exercised a franchise that subjects them to military duty. A man who votes must bear arms.

E. SALOMON, Governor of Wisconsin.

FULTON FULL.—Mr. H. S. Swift, of Edgerton, reports to us that Fulton has filled her quota of volunteers and scrip.

BELOIT.—We learn from Mr. Smith, of the Journal, that the city of Beloit is nearly or quite full, and the town of Beloit has an excess in the apportionment of volunteers.

ENLISTMENTS.—We find, on inquiry at the recruiting office of Messrs. Wemple & Scott, that at four o'clock this afternoon, they had 56 names enrolled. Mr. Miltimore has 44, and Mr. Harlow 17. We could obtain no information from other recruiting officers, as they are probably at the pic nic grounds.

☞ The city of Watertown has raised a surplus of 50 volunteers over her quota.

☞ Hiram Price, of Davenport, Iowa, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress.

The quota of New York city under the draft is 12,519.

Mr. Robert Dale Owen has written a letter of considerable length to Mr. Stanton, advocating the emancipation of slaves throughout the United States. Mr. Owen is a democrat.

The Racine & Mississippi railroad is now completed through to Savannah, and is thus brought in direct communication with the Father of Waters.

James F. Wilson has been nominated as the republican candidate for congress in the first district of Iowa, Hiram Price in the second, and J. B. Grinnell in the fourth.

Somebody who writes more truthfully than poetically says:

"An angel now-a-days, without money, is not thought so much of as a devil with a bag full of guineas."

ENLIST? ENLIST??

MEN OF WISCONSIN, will you wait to be drafted and then lose all the bounty. A splendid chance is offered those who are desirous of enlisting in Capt. Crandall's company, 22d Regiment Wis. Vol., under Col. Utley. Furloughs will be given to enlisted men for fifteen days or more. Each recruit will receive, on enlisting, his first months pay, $18, $25 of the one hundred dollars bounty offered by the general government, $50 bounty from the state of Wisconsin and $2 premium, making in all the handsome sum of $90 besides the 160 acres of land and the remaining $75 bounty at the close of the war. The families of volunteers will be provided for. Recruits for this company will be boarded and lodged at the Hyatt House. If your country is worth saving call at the recruiting office of Capt. Crandall's company, 22d Regiment, Wis. Vol., two doors east of the express office, Hyatt House Block, Janesville, Rock County, and enroll your names.

IN

OF

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools; Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

☞ We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, badly made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will save more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

GREAT VICTORIA BRIDGE OPEN. This immense iron structure, nearly two miles in length, (the longest in the world,) erected across the river St. Lawrence, at Montreal, at a cost of six and a half millions of dollars, to connect the eastern and western divisions of the Grand Trunk Railway, of Canada,

is now open for public traffic. This road, of nearly 1,100 miles in length, is operated under one management from Detroit, Mich., to Portland, Me., and there is only ONE CHANGE OF CARS from Chicago or the Mississippi river to Portland or Boston. Quickest and most convenient route for travel between the west and Canada and New England. Passengers and freight booked through to all parts of Canada and the New England states, also

TO AND FROM CHICAGO AND LIVERPOOL,

and the continent of Europe, at considerably reduced rates, by the only regular weekly line of United States and European Mail Steamers, sailing from Portland every Saturday during winter and Quebec during summer, and from Liverpool every Thursday, calling at Londonderry every Friday throughout the year. For further particulars apply to

A Great National Work.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside,

Every Reader!

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

A Great National Work.
Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside,
Every Reader!
NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.
The only Correct and Complete
HISTORY OF THE WAR.
THE SOUTHERN REBELLION
and the
WAR FOR THE UNION:
A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,
and
Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,
TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.
In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the Story as it is, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
